

Canadian University of Dubai Code of Conduct on University Transportation

The Canadian University of Dubai is committed to providing students with an international academic experience, guided by the highest educational and corporate ethics, adding value to the personal and professional lives of its graduates, and the communities in which we serve.

The Canadian University of Dubai promotes Canadian perspectives in learning, research and application, grounded in appreciation and respect for diverse cultures and UAE values.

We strive to meet this commitment to our students by providing transportation which meets students' needs and allows them to travel to and from the University in a calm environment of mutual respect.

To provide a pleasant ride for all, students using University buses must:

- Have paid for the privilege
- Show respect for each other
- Obey instruction and requests from the driver
- Stay seated.
- Ladies must sit in the front seats designated for them and men in the seats behind.
- Refrain from horseplay.
- Avoid talking to the driver while driving
- Avoid shouting, loud talking, loud music and other noises.
- Respect UAE cultural and religious morals and values in their speech and behaviour.
- Refrain from indecent behaviour and physical expressions of affection.
- Respect the bus schedule.
- Respect the planned bus stop points.
- Refrain from eating, drinking and smoking in the bus.

Men must remember that there are Ladies on the bus and temper their speech and behaviour accordingly.

Failure to comply with this code

Failure to comply with this code may result in a written warning, counselling or a disciplinary hearing depending on the severity of the offence. A hearing could result in corrective measures ranging from a written warning to progressively more severe penalties which could include letters to parents, suspension or expulsion from student transportation or the University or referral to Police or other authorities and possible legal sanctions.
